Özge Kas (Turkey), International Relations student: My studies at Maria Curie-Skłodowska University turned out to be the greatest adventure of my life. The field of study that I chose has met my expectations to the fullest extent. The lectures provided me with a lot of practical knowledge, whereas classes gave me the opportunity to test my skills. Apart from the academic life, a large number of student organizations operate on a regular basis. Any volunteer can participate in their activity. The possibilities of personal development, resulting from the non-profit initiatives, cannot be overestimated. Lublin is the city of calmness. I guess, that's the reason that people are so nice and good humored here. What's more, the city itself inspires and encourages people to be active through numerous, colorful festivals, meetings with interesting people and other events. To sum up, I recommend studies at the UMCS to all those who do not want to waste this precious time!
