I do believe that the Jagiellonian University is very welcoming for foreign students!

Omar Al-Obaidi (Iraq, Sweden), a student at the School of Medicine in English of the JU MC Faculty of Medicine and winner of the INTERSTUDENT 2017 competition in two categories.

I wanted to study in Eastern Europe, so I did a little research on all countries that have dentistry programmes in English. I found out that Poland was one of the best countries for that. Then I applied to four or five universities in Poland and got accepted into almost all of them. I chose Kraków because I had friends here who recommended it, but also because I had visited the city before and liked it a lot. So I thought the Jagiellonian University and Kraków would be the best combination. And it is! I do believe that the Jagiellonian University is very welcoming for foreign students. There are international students from all over the world, which makes it easy to learn all about other cultures and find new friends. Everything from the history of the city, to the beautiful cafeterias and restaurants in the Main Square and Kazimierz, to the affordable prices of living, to good universities and amazing student life.
